

2017-18 TRYOUT POLICIES

Updated: June 29, 2017

The Iowa Region in support of IGHSAU and to help high school athlete encourage clubs not to hold tryouts during an athlete's high school season.

- The IA Girl's HS Athletic Union says that individual must check with their school boards about the rules for attending tryouts during season.
- Club Directors should check with their High School board for their tryout restrictions.
- Players attending tryouts during season should present written approval from their school board.

Teams are formed by invitation, tryouts or combination of invitation and tryout for remaining positions. Clubs should indicate on all tryout materials if the tryout is for all positions or just for the remaining positions. If for remaining positions, the positions should be listed in the tryout materials.

1. A club or team may offer a player a position in their club or team at anytime. Coaches or club directors may not force players to give a verbal commitment before the commitment dates listed in this policy.
  - a. Clubs who extend offers must keep the offered position open until the same deadlines listed below.
  - b. A club or team should use the Player/ Club Commitment Letter. Only a signed letter will be accepted as proof of commitment.
  - c. The Commitment Letter should be sent to players that are invited verbally or by email. A Player accepting an invitation by phone, in-person or via email must sign a Commitment Letter.
  - d. All Commitment Letters are kept with the club to present in case of a dispute.
  - e. Team player limit Club must state the maximum number of players being accepted to a team. Clubs may not issue more offers than the number of positions stated for each team.
2. Players who are invited to play on a team/club may sign a Commitment Letter at anytime. Coaches or club directors may not force players to give a verbal commitment before the commitment dates listed in this policy.
  - a. Once they sign the Commitment Letter they cannot attend any other club's tryouts.
  - b. A Player is committed to the team/club they signed with for the entire season.
  - c. If a player has received more than one Commitment Letter or offer, any non-selected clubs must be informed within 24 hours of final acceptance.
  - d. Players should also keep a copy of the Commitment Letter to present in case of a dispute.
  - e. If a club extends a verbal offer and does not include a Commitment Letter, it is recommended that the player's parents or guardians fill out the information of the offer on the Commitment Letter and send to the club to get a signature on the offer. This is for the protection of the player and to prevent Clubs from forcing a commitment before the deadline.
